ience of

ORT

CEA.

NTS, ΠY

TWO

ays-

Verdict, Pagenint, D'Or, Night Sky.

J Egen, W (Inest, D ruce : A Marvey.

a paragraph ferk in the the 3.0 Alex-

n: Veiled

PARK Vote (4.30) well

(2.30) Isncied. (2.30), Noticime Solleret (4.0) aza

Star 13.01 and icied, (2.0). Our Owen). and Pompous

2.0) fancied.

BIES 1951 OK HOW!

outfit

NORFOLK (anchester-

Glasgow, C.1.

HINTS

e-Ree

DAILY EXPRESS

PROFESSOR Pontecorvo worked

PLANNER Fastival contract given to

PHILIPS Socialist secretary

PROBE Americans begin

ATOM MAN KNEW ATOM S

Professor and Nunn May shared lab

NEW PROBE STARTS

By CHAPMAN PINCHER

DROFESSOR BRUNO PONTECORVO, the atom scientist from Harwell who has gone to Russia, worked for two years in a Canadian laboratory with Dr. Nunn May

-now serving a ten-year sentence for passing atomic information to Russia. This discovery, made yesterday, switched uiries about Pontecorvo to Canada.

Security authorities there are checking on whether approaches were made to him by Russian agents.

For an extensive spy ring was discovered in Canada after a Russian cypher clerk at the Soviet Embassy reported to the police.

Pontecorvo and Nunn May were among the first scientists to join the Canadian atom project in 1943. They worked together on what is still highly secret research in a Montreal laboratory.

stole a sample of atomic explosive which he passed to Russian agents. In 1945 Pontecorvo moved to the main Canadian atom station at Chaik River. Nunn May came back to Britain and was arrested a large cover it Pontecorvo made plans to go to Heisinki before he left Britain on July 25 to visit Italy. Mr. Oswald Scott. British Minister in Helsinki has been in London discussing the case with Whitehall. He will return today.

INTO RUSSIA

And Express Stay Reporter phoneal from Helsinki last light:
British secret service men, working with the help of Finnish Premier Urhol Kekkonen, established tonight that Pontecorvo disappeared into Russia on Saturday. September 2.
At 2.30 p.m. that day as the northern sun ser over Malmi Alfrort, Helsinki, a Scandinavian Airlines piane from Stockholm set down the professor with his fair. Swedish-born wife Helena Marianne and their three children. They had 11 trunks, The professor carried a bulging dark-brown briefcase. Their 12-year-old son Gustay Inge Nils listened attentively while father went through the Customs.

he Customs.

Six-year-old Pito Nils and the third son, Antonio, aged five, romped, while mother kept an eye on them.

A hitch came when the passport control asked to see the professor's Finnish visa. He had none. So has passport—issued in Ottawa April 1948—vas impounded, and he was told it would be deposited with the Finnish Foreign Office.

As a British citizen, it was pointed out, he could collect the visa next day.

Asked where the Ministry could get in touch with him about the passport, he signed a paper saying. "At my hotel."

But no trace of his registration at any hotel has been found. Nor did he collect his passport.

OVER BRIDGE?

While discussions about the visa were going on the bus for the passengers' half-hour trip into the capital was held up. But Pontecorvo did not take the bus.

Pontecorvo did not take the bus.

A big black Bulck with Diplomatic Corps plates and a lounge-suited chauffeur drew up. Into it the professor and his family piled with their luggage. That was the last seen of them. A fellow passenger from the plane says they drove towards the Helsinki quay where the Russian boat Beloostrov lay on her way from London to Leningrad.

But Finnish police and passport officials say that no one named Pontecorvo boarded the Beloostrov.

The Finnish authorities say

The Finnish authorities say the Buick sped in the direction of the Soviet enclave of Porkkala, ten miles outside Helsinki.

ten miles outside Helsinki.

This territory was leased to Russia for 50 years from 1944. Where it begins a 300-yard wooden bridge spans a creek.

From Porkkula the Pontecorvos could have taken the sealed train which passes from the enclave across Finnish territory to Leningrad, six brurs away Noody but the Russians would know.

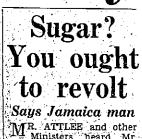

Milan cable: Pontecorvos 26-yar-old sister Anna is in England. Another sister, 29-year-old Laura, was a hospital nurse in Britain, and returned to Italy with Pontecorvo in July.

MISSING PROFESSOR—PASSPORT PHOTO

-Daily Express exclusive picture

Inside the locked, silent house

MR. ATTLEE and other Ministers neard Mr. C. C. Campbell, Speaker of the Jamaica Parliament, say at a Guildhall dinner

"We in Jamaica are offering ou sugar and still more sugar. The English people ought to rise in revolt against the Ministry of Food.

"Unless that market is guaran-ed with profitable prices, our doubled steps may have to be diuced."

Mr. Stokes was taken to nospital, but went home after being treated for cuts and bruises.

NOTHING WRONG, SAYS MORRISON

FESTIVAL ROW OVER ORDER

Chief Planner Plowden's firm gets contract

A file Government's Chief Planning Officer, on its board has got the contract to self advertising space in 3,000,000 Festival of Britain programmes.

The estimated advertising revenue is £300,000, which may mean a gross commis-sion of £20,000 for the firm.

The last man...

The last man...

"It would not have been practical to divide the work among several firms."

I am certain the Chief Planning Officer of the Government is the last person who would be capable of any improper conduct.

"Unless you can follow up these imputations and innuendoes."

The rest of the sentence was lost in shouts from both sides of the House.

The successful firm is Adprint. Ltd... of Rathbone-place. Oxfordstreet. W. Last night, the general manager. Mr. R. Spicer, said:

"The Festival of Britain Council are producing seven publications. They approached seven firms and our tender was accepted."

Sir Edwin Plowden has been on leave of absence from the firm for between three and four years as a nominal director without fee."

They just self

Mr. W. Foges managing director a subsidiary of Adprint, said deprint employs about 100 ople. The festival contract can carried out by five or six. All in theatre

No meat? I blame...

Express Staff Reporter

FIRM which has Sir Edwin Plowden,

ARTISTS GAGMUNNINGS SIR ALFRED MUNNINGS, former president of the

They wrote to Sir Alfred, askin him not to make any reference this "deplorable controversy with Spencer."

Said Sir Alfred yesterday: "There will be no controversial statements, I shall talk about tulips and primroses."

Tanks nearer

NORTH KOREA, Monday.— Tanks racing to rescue 160 G.Ls from a prison train bound for Communist China are 45 miles from the border tonight. The G.Ls are survivors of a massacre. The Reds rook 90 hithers off the train and shot them.

To avenge their brother-

1s. in the £ off

"Unless that market is guaranteed, with profitable prices, our redoubled steps may have to be reduced."

Stokes hurt

Stokes hurt

The Car Crash

Mr. Richard Stokes, Minister of Works, was Injured when a car in which he was riding was in collision with a taxi in Greenstreet, Mayfair, last night.

Mr. Stokes was taken to nospital, but went home after being treated to the firm. The choice was responsible to the most expression of this firm. The choice was responsible to the most expression with a taxi in Greenstreet, Mayfair, last night.

Mr. Stokes was taken to nospital, but went home after being treated to the firm. The choice was responsible to the most expression of £20,000 for the firm.

Yesterday, in the Commons.

Yesterday, in the Commons.

Yesterday, in the Commons.

The Justical Stokes, Minister of this nature should be given to a firm of which a director holds an alternative position of this kind?

"Do you think it right a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of which a contract of this nature should be given to a firm of the contrac Royal Academy, has agreed to open an exhibition by Chelsea artists tomorrow week, despite criticisms about his attitude to Stanley Spencer's "saucy" paintings.

Some artists threatened to boycott the exhibition if Sir Alfred opened it.

Seven members of the exhibition to council met over the week-end.

Car park miners

Forty miners at the Nook olliery, Astley, Lanes, have asked or a car park at the pit.

Bevin

furious

with

One Penny

WHITEHALL'S big gest storm for is raging round Morgan Phillips £1,200-a-year secretary Mr. Attlee and Mr. Bev the Foreign Secretary, a ference in Paris on Sundi He is reported to have the meeting that neither the British Government nor the British Socialist Party has may be mind on rearming the mind on rearming the many.

4.30a.m. LATES

CUTTER SAVES 8 CASTAWAYS ST. JOHN'S (Newfoundlan Monday. — Eight survivors fit Canadian freighter New Voyageur, which disappeared miles off Cape Race, have hicked up by U.S. coastguenter.—Express News Service.

CENtral 8000

No change

Three brothers—Raymond Kinne, 21, Derek, 20, and Valentine. 18, of Leeds, were called The Three Musketers. Each wore a sing to seal a "One-for-all" patting to of a year. Deprint has a capital of £200,000 BRUSSELS, Monday,—The Belgian to the party execution in the party execution of living.—Express News Service. Arr. Phillips is likely for the party execution of living.—Express News Service.

THIS is the sitting-room

RED SWOOP: BRITON ARRESTED IN BED

Express Staff Reporter: New York, Monday

SECURITY POLICE went to an eight-roomed house in and arrested Harry Carlisle, 52-year-old British film writer, in his bed. writer, in his bed.

This was the start of a nation-wide round-up of Reds.
The Justice Department said Carlisle is one of America's top Communists.

He was ordered to be held on Terminal Island, near Los Angeles, for violating the deportation law and the new internal security Act.

This Act compels all Com-

This Act compels all Communists to register. Twelve other men—two of them Russians—were arrested, and police are searching for 73 more. All can be jailed or deported.

be jailed or deported.

Carlisle has been 30 years in America, but he stayed a British citizen. He lived with his sister, his niece and her husband.

Cartisle is described by the Justice Department as a former editor of a Communist-front newspaper and a lecturer on Marxism.

A 39-year-old Polish seaman.

Waclaw Furtak, who deserted his ship two years ago rather than return home, was called before a deportation board today. He committed suicide.

Melbourne cable: Security police raided Communist headquarters and party officials homes in cities throughout Australia yesterday. They seized stacks of papers.

'We couldn't stop his trip

Another sister. 29-year-old Laura, with Pontecorvo in July.

Minn with a stick hits reporter

Reporters and at the house of Professor Pontecorvo's brother in Great Western-rond, Glasgow, Iast, night. A man waving a heavy stick followed by a woman, sprang from the door shouting: "Geout," Issue of the many struck a reporter and struck a photographer's camera.

We Couldn't Stop us 18 by 18

Philo is the sitting-room or Protessor Pontecorvo's four-bedroomed, £2 10s. a week house in Letcombe-avenue, Abingdon, Berks. It has been tocked up since he left with his family in July. Ringed—a tea-cup on the bookcase.

A Madonna and Child reproduc-tion painting stands on the tion painting stands mantelpiece.

The rocking horse with the bashful look . . the professor's youngest son, Antonio, is five.

UNMARRIED MOTHER STAYS INDOORS Express Staff Reporter: Nottingham, Monday

MRS. NELLIE LAMONTE stayed indoors with her little lughter today at her new council house at Beeston. near Nottingham. She feared gossip because people now know that she and 50-year-old Mr. Harold Lamonte, a mear Nottingham. She feared gossip because people now know that she and 50-year-old Mr. Harold Lamonte, a Post Office engineer, are not married.

Man goes down in blazing boat

A wife and her three children, who normally live in a trawler, were ashore last evening when the vessel caught fire and sank off Southend. Her husband, Mr. Ronald Archer, aged 30, owner of the trawler the Holba, was saved, but a Canadian friend with him was lost. Mr. Archer was unable to say what happened when a tug landed him at Gravesend.

Wilson gives in Mr. Harold Wilson last night climbed down and scrapped ins three-year-old plan to set up a Government - controlled development council for the wool industry. Instead the industry is to have its own advisory committee of employers and union representatives, with independent members.

In to the wife

Up to the wife

Alan Brown, East Fife inside forward, priced at £20,000, was shown allens who live in a Government Croydon Rovers, semi-semiter club Leigh, in Lancashire, who want him as coach. Said club Leigh, in Lancashire, and the continual reprivation of soficials. It was the first day of walting until his wife approves the house before signing on.

Unknown's £1,500

A pleture by an unknown artist.

A prope and cardinals, fetched in gint: It is the sole responsibility $1.500—top price of the day—at a lof the British Government that no sale yesterday at Shelton Abbey, Argentine meat has been shipped lite, home of the Earl of Wicklow to this country since July.

PAGE ONE TURN ON THE HEAT

E 1GHT letters were delivered yesterday to Rotnerham Town Cricket Club (four to the secretary, four to the treasurer). Each was from the East Midlands Gas Board. Sheffield, and said: "On and after November 1, 1950, all accounts should be paid; at the Gas Showrooms, Frederick-street, Rotherham."

TRUST Maconochies FOR FLAVOUS